

At the very least, these changes should be given a fair and thorough hearing. Please don't rush into yet another set of changes that will benefit large corporations while hurting the public. Please recognize that the public are the ones who can best determine whether and how they're being hurt -- therefore, efforts must be made to ensure adequate public review and commentary.